

ALA San Diego Chapter Law Firm Survey of Compensation & Benefits.

2010

This is the paper version of the 2010 Survey Questionnaire. This paper version is designed to be your working copy and a tool for your notes, reference and paper file copy. The actual questionnaire is on line which is accessed by the special secure link that you should have received via email.

You most likely received this paper copy from the Survey web page. Due to the conversion of HTML to PDF, some of the matrix type questions are printed below each other rather than next to each other. This results in "not a perfect" paper copy, however, it still serves its purpose very well. The actual online survey questionnaire displays properly.

The original PDF of this file is online. If changes are made to the online questionnaire, the online version of the PDF file will be updated accordingly. The online version of the questionnaire is always the most current version.

All instructions and the download link for this file are on the Survey webpage at:

www.JimColvilleCPA.com/alasurvey

On the website, you will find:

- Instructions for the entire survey and online data entry
 - For data security purposes and streamlined data entry there are two separate questionnaires, one for the salary data and one for everything else
 - We hope that you find the salary data entry to be much easier
- Participation and payment instructions
- Payment can be made by check or credit card
- Survey Timeline / Calendar

- You will receive an email from ALA San Diego Chapter announcing the survey
- Soon after, you will receive a separate email from Jim Colville with your link to the questionnaire
- Always return to the Survey website for instructions and explanations

2010 ALA Compensation and Benefits Survey

1. Getting Started

Welcome to the 2010 San Diego ALA Law Firm Salary and Benefits Questionnaire. There have been no changes in the survey questionnaire since last year which we hope helps you with the preparation and the input.

All questions should be answered with historical data as of July 1, 2010.

In a hurry to get started? Scroll to the end of this page and Click Next.

You have access to this survey as a result of a survey invitation sent to your email address. There is a special link in the email that got you here. While seemingly simple, this is an extremely secure method of protecting others from accessing your data. Each ALA member has their own unique link.

Your section of the survey cannot be accessed by anyone, even if they know your email address. The only way into this survey questionnaire is by clicking the link in the email you received.

If you want to work on the survey from home, simply forward the email to your home email address. You may also forward the email to an assistant in the office that will be helping you.

Again, this is a very secure and easy to use method of survey control. Word of caution: as you may have guessed, forwarding the email allows others to have access. Only forward to yourself at home or to your trusted assistant in the office and only if necessary.

Another layer of security is that the data in this online questionnaire has no reference to you or your firm, thus the data reveals no specific information of value.

This on-line survey questionnaire is for all non-salary questions, i.e. it's just the benefits section. The salary questions are handled through a separate survey tool. (See the ALA Survey web page on Jim Colville's web site for instructions.)

Navigation instructions: Click the Next button at the end of each section. This saves your work and moves you to the next section. At the very end of this survey, click the Done button. Both Next and Done save your entries. If you do not complete this survey in one session, scroll to the end of your current section, click Next or Done to save your work. If you Exit the survey (the link at the top of the screen) without saving, your responses in the current section will not be saved.

This survey questionnaire is divided into sections. To go back to a previous section, click the Previous button at the end of a section. If you need to return to this questionnaire later for revisions, do so by using your unique email link.

The survey is in Sections. If coming back into the survey for revisions, you must click Next at the end of each section to get there which can be cumbersome. The navigation buttons below will help you in skipping sections. Clicking Yes is only required if skipping sections.

Click the Next button below to begin the survey.
